THEN THERE IS THE MONEY SIDE

As you may know I am a very active stamp collector. It is a very fine hobby. But stamps are made to be used for first class mail, not collectors. There is always the money side of stamp collecting. There is always the money side to first class mail. This newspaper believes that is a waste of your money and our money to send a letter air mail when you can get the same thing for 4¢ less. Today nearly all first class mail is sent by air regardless of the cost of the stamp. What is the use of throwing 4¢ down the drain in this date of tight money? We ask you that.

SHACK COMES UP A Cottage

Ralph Blecks Shack has become a cottage. It has its plumbing in and a telephone number. One problem. Ralph does not have a phone. Another fine service of the New Jersey Telephone Company! If he had a phone you could reach him at 832-2048.

Birthday Column

FOUR Birthdays were celebrated in this last month of December.

Lynn Angell :

Lynn Angell had her tenth birthday on December 15, 1970. She had a birthday party with 11 girls. It was a lot of fun ! She got nice presents from her ~~pa~~ parents, grandparent, and Aunts and Uncles. She got a real pretty ring from her grandparents in New Mexico.

Ethel King: Mrs. Ethel King had her 62 birthday on December 14, 1970. She was in the hospital that day with a fractured wrist from a Thanksgiving fall but that's not any reason to keep the spirit of a birthday behind you. So she celebrated it December 19, when the family met at the Will Kings home in Spring Valley. The Joe Bechtles joined in to make it a very merry occasion.

Ricky Grabau: Ricky Grabau had a birthday on December 22, 1970. It was his eighth. The birthday was celebrated a day before so Rick could have a check up at the doctors the next day. It was celebrated right after caroling practice. The Grabaus, Kings, and Angells would go caroling Christmas Eve.

Christ : Christ was well celebrated on his 1,970 birthday on December 25, 1970. The glory was not only ~~getting presents~~ getting presents that day but giving them as well.

Robert Grabau Sr. : Robert Grabau had a birthday November 30, 1970. His Family gave him a party. He got gifts that were nice from his family.

Richy Block was married in Tampa Florida on December 12, 1970. The day they were married Story Book Farm was covered with ice while the people down in Florida were busy playing tennice. We do wish Richy and Trica a happy marriage.

Drum LESSONS

Tom Bleck is taking advanced drum lessons in New York City under the study of Mr. Charles Tappen, former staff drummer with C.B.S.

CHRISTMAS

On the 19 of December the King Family went to Will Kings to have a Christmas Dinner with the Kings and Bechtles. That's when the Christmas Season started. After that day the King Children were waiting for the School Day Wednesday. Usually the children don't want to go to school but this day they did. They wanted to go to school because this day was the Christmas Party. They had a lot of fun. Linda King got a pin, Tommy King got Silly Putty, and Mike King got a model. But there was still more excitement going on in the King House. For now it was Thursday, the day before Christmas. Now Thursday night. The Kings ran out their door toward the Grabaus. They were going to have last minute practicing for Christmas Caroling. But not all the Kings went straight to the Grabaus. Mike King went to borrow a candle from the Rountrees. They practiced for about a half hour and then went caroling. They went to the Blecks, Kings, Ryans, Angells and Lambs. For a reward the leader of all this, Caroline Grabau gave them a book about Christ. When the Kings got home from caroling with the Grabaus and Lynn Angell they went to Church. When the Kings got home from Church they decorated the tree. While they were decorating the tree grownups (relatives) came over to their house and caroled. At 11:00 the King Children went to bed. At 4:00 A.M. they woke up. Now Tommy King is skiing on his new skis, Mike King is riding his new bike, and Linda King is listening to her new records on her new record player. And that was the end of the Christmas Season.

NEW DOG

Another dog has been added to the list at Story Book Farm. The dog is a little baby German Shepherd which the Robert Blecks received a couple days before Christmas. The name is Heidi. She is one of six dogs now living on Story Book Farm.

CAROLING

Under the instruction of Mrs. Robert Grabau the Grabau children, Calvin, Ricky, and Bobby, the King Children, Mike, Linda and Tommy, and Lynn Angell went caroling Christmas Eve. They traveled and sang on all three parts of Story Book Farm. It was a very fun time.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

Christmas Dinner was held as usual at the Farm House of Story Book Farm. The Rountrees were excellent hosts for the happy occasion. The food was great and everybody was happy. Except for little Carol King who could not stand the noise.

Now that Lincoln's Birthday is coming we should all be grateful for what he did. He freed the slaves. Lincoln was a good president. Lincoln gave a speech that nobody would forget. While he was having a good time, somebody shot him. So now his statue remains in Washington and we will never forget him.

Tribute

Death is not the end but it is a beginning of a new life. Let us not fear death let us fear not living a full life. Grandpa achieved success:

~~He lived. But what is more important, he enjoyed living.~~

Grandpa achieved success: He gave. And he enjoyed giving.

He didn't give "presents."

But he gave something of more value. He gave his smile that warmed everybody who saw it. Grandpa gave his patience also. but more than all this he gave love and he enjoyed giving his love as the people who received it.

Grandpa achieved success: He worked and enjoyed working. But more than that he knew the value of working.

Grandpa is was success
GRANDPA is was beautiful!

I went to Doctor Macholdt the 4th of February. He found out I had to go to the hospital with Mononucleosis. I was there 4 days with it. For breakfast I had oatmeal, orange juice (which I was not supposed to have) milk. For lunch I had chicken broth, Jello, ice cream, milk and juice. For dinner I had the same as lunch. Usually I stayed up as late as I could watching TV. I got comic books, checkers, tic tac toe, dark shadows magic drawing board and lots of cards. On the last 2 days I was there I had baths. My mother, grandmother and grandfather, father, sister, brother and Aunt Carolyn came to visit. While they were there I either watched TV, read comic books or opened mail, played tic tac toe and checkers. I liked reading comic books best. When I got home I found two welcome home signs hanging on the wall. I was glad to be home. The end

Do You Care

Today in Many of the various metropolitons in the United States, we the people are being faced with a very serious problem. POLLUTION! Finally in the last couple years people have started to take notice of the serious problem. These people are trying to get rid of it. But to a slight minority, Pollution is only a word you here hear on the news a lot. To these people it does not matter if the cities just get into worse shape then they already are. To these people pollution is nothing to take note of. So they will just carry on their daily process of littering and polluting our lakes, streams, ponds, parks, air, and cities. These people won't stop and we can't defeat pollution until they do. The whole world has to wake up some day and realize that pollution is more than a word, it's a habit.

A Party? More like a festival. The huge going away party for Allen Angell and his family was held on March 21, 1971. It was at the Thomas King Home. What a wild way to go for Wisconsin. But when the Allen Angells went they were given what was better than a 21- Gun Salute. Noise. Solid Noise until 4:30 A.M. The noisy festival ended at 4:30 A.M., after 9 and 1/2 hours of singing, dancing, bowling, drinking, eating, and noise. Over 25 people came to say so-long to the Allen Angells. As I said, What a way to go.

3 Great Things

SBFI
Woodglen, N.J.
Linda King

Tuesday April 20, 1971, Thomas King (Mr. King) brought home what he called the greatest things on the farm. He told the King children to come out and see. From his work, Thomas King, got 3 tire tubes! One from a tractor and two from trucks. The trouble was, they weren't pumped up yet. Mike King immediately got out his bike and went up to the Angels to see if he could borrow their air pump. Ofcourse he could. He hooked it up. One pump, 2, 3. It seemed like no air was in it. Finally after pumping a long while Mike, Tommy, Linda King, and Calvin Grabau were tired out. But not enough to go down to the hilland try them out. So they climed in. Away they go! That night all they were talking about were the three great things!

EDITORIAL: 18 YEAR OLD VOTE

BY ROBERT ANGELL III

"18- Year Olds don't know enough about local and state government and bugeting to be able to vote for local and state ~~xxx~~ offices" said Mrs. Joseph Lola. I ask do adults.

There has been much controversy on the 18- Year Old vote.* Both in National and State elections. The people opposed to the 18-Year Old vote say 18- Year Olds are too idealistic. Others say they aren't qualified. And still mere people feel that if 18-Year Olds are allowed to vote, the country from a moderate or conservative belief to a more liberal belief. I feel that 18 year olds should be allowed to vote in all elections. The oppositions say that the 18 Year Olds aren't qualified. 18- Year olds are qualified. They are probably the most informed generation because they have television, radio, and newspapers. They also have Social Studies ~~xxxxxx~~ * courses which study current problems and events. People say that 18-Year Olds are too idealistic. First of all I know many 18-Year Olds who are very practical. So that statement doesn't hold up. And second of all, even if 18- Year Olds are idealistic, what's so wrong about that. Our country was built by idealists. People say that this country will change from a moderate point of view to a liberal point of view if 18- Year Olds get the vote. But evidence shows that this is not true. In fact it seems there will be little change.

TRIP TO Capital

Two couples of relatives went to the U.S. Capital in Washington, D.C. One, the Will Kings went to Washington on a vacation. Maybe they had a good time although it's doubtful. For while the Kings were in the big city, they found that pregnancy, strange food, and two vacationers that don't know anything about traffic regulations don't mix.

Then the John Angells just so happened to take a trip to the capital. While they were down there they visited Mrs. Janet Bleck and the kids, Tammy, Timmy, and Andy. Maybe John and Marion Angell had a good time but I'm sure The Will Kings won't go down again with a baby on the way.

By the way, Mr. King, although wanting a boy, has all ready predicted a third girl to add to the list.

Birthday

Shirley Angell had a birthday on April 19, 1971. The Saturday before they went to New York. First they ate dinner at the Cattlerens then they went to a play called Last of the Red Hot Lovers. After the play they went to the Playboy Club. Mrs. Angell had given Bob Angell a key for Christmas.

Egg Hunt

April

On April 11, 1971, about 2:30 all the kids marched up to the farm house for the Easter story told every year by Herbert Rountree. We heard all sorts of poems and we made up a story, too. Then all of a sudden Mike King comes running in shouting 'The Easter Bunny is here'. Man, you should have seen that - in less than a minute the rooms were empty. I can't remember how many kids were there but I'll see if I can name some - Dobby and Rusty Bleck, Linda and Tommy King, Lynn Angell, Jennifer and Jeremy Angell and Catherine too. Tammy Bleck and Timmy Bleck, Rick Calvin and Bobby Grabau, and Brad and David Cooley. Of course Catherine Angell needed help finding eggs so Lynn Angell helped her. I think we did pretty well - we found 7 eggs.

It was Easter night and the crowd of Story Book Farmers and some people from Woodglen gathered at the Lebanon Twp. School for a basketball game between Woodglen vs. Story Book Farm. Chip Angell from Washington D.C. showed up to help the Story Book Farmers - victorious over Woodglen. It was a really great game.

From College

The Honorable Miss Margi Rountree was home for Easter. It was an enjoyable time she had as she too helped make Easter eggs. But when you are a senator you learn to enjoy things. But on Story Book Farm there is never anything not to enjoy. And there is nothing to debate about that.

BORN

It was only that morning on April Fools Day when Mike King ran down to his grandparents house and told his grandmother, Mrs. Rountree, that her sheep 'Mom' had had a baby. Mrs. Rountree, surprised, went to get her coat. Then jokingly, Mike said 'April Fools!' That afternoon after school, Mike came home and his grandmother said that Mom had had twins. Mike said 'Sure' and continued his path into the house. But he couldn't resist looking out the window and to his surprise he saw two baby rams. Black wooly rams. And we are happy to say that they are strong and healthy.

The person and animals in the party were Linda King, (the person), Na Na and Mom, (the sheep), Funkley, (the dog), and of course the ponies. All of the animals including Linda had a carrot. Dunkley had a juicy bone. Friday, April, Na Na, and Mom were given an extra bunch of hay and an extra measure of oats.

VOTE CONT.

Eighteen Year Olds should be given the right to vote, because they are well informed and concerned about the world around them. X 18 year olds are fighting and dying for this country. Shouldn't they have a say in how it's run? Those who are 18 years old are effected directly by what the adults vote on. They have to take the consequences of what the adults decide. It is only fair that 18 year olds get the vote.

~~XXXXX~~ Linda King

Jusan King had a birthday on April 21, 1971. It was agreed that the King Children would not give her a present because Thomas King was taking her to New York City. Even though, they got her a dress. It is blue and white striped. Mrs. King and Mr. King went to a play called 1776. It was a musical about the second Continental Congress. After that they went to the Cattle-men for dinner.

Mrs. Frances Rountree went to the Post Office one day before the mail had arrived. She made arrangements with mailman Jim Burd for a race. The race was to see if the mailman could get the mail to S.B.F. before Mrs. Rountree repaired the mail box. She Lost.

PROGRESS: RECYCLING

SBFI
Flemington, New Jersey
Michael King

Maybe it is just instinct or destiny which has changed many people of today's society from polluters to conservationists. The Story Book Farmers regret their putting phosphates into the pond, so now they have changed their detergents as well as their habits. Recycling has become part of every Saturday. As we recycle, we make a public service. And we hope to keep it up. And hope you do to.

DONATION

As you may have noticed by looking at the outside of your Story Book Farm Review, you have probably taken note that the return addresses are not labels. You will also notice that they were not typed on but stamped. Thanks to a kind gift from Mr. Ralph Bleck, an accomplished young reporter for the Hunterdon County Democrat, we have been able to do this.

The new lane is the road going from Hill Road past Robert Bleck Jr.'s House on up to the cottage on the hill. (Formally known as the shack.) The lower section of the road was being worked by Ralph Bleck, Bob Bleck, Caroline Bleck, and students from North Hunterdon Regional High School, and Lebanon Twp. Elementary School. These people were throwing rocks onto the road so it won't get muddy and slippery. Lets hope it works. While on the upper section of the road Ralph Bleck, Rob Angell, and Emmett Angell* ~~are~~ are climbing trees to get electricity to the cottage. On the hill trees and branches have to be cut down so that power lines can be put up. Good luck to the Blecks and their lane.

CAMPUS

Today the United States has many problems. A new one to the list is the College Campus. Demonstrations have become a major cause. Students seem to be more rebellious and a lot more impatient, jumping at every bad move. Students are creating rallies which can easily close down the school. Another problem is from students skipping classes or not coming to classes at all. This brings in complaints from many parents. These problem makers are made up of kids who want attention, independent kids, and just plain trouble makers.* Then there is a majority of the students who would like to learn more than protest, demonstrate, and close the school. These students are on campus and paying good money to learn. It takes these people who want education or who are interested in college that keep the campus running. But while the learners are learning, we find the third problem of the campus. Drugs! Heroin, pills, pot, may be found in your roommates drawer. It could happen. And the campus won't be any more pleasant.

Thursday, May 27, Michael King became a cripple for about 24 hours. At Lebanon Township School Mike was on recess. Laying a bunt down in front of the plate, he tried to beat out the throw. He was about to reach the base when he saw the ball land in the 1st basemens mitt, putting him out. Mike was running so fast he fell over the first basemens leg, falling on a rock, hitting his knee. Going up to the nurse, he had an ice pack put on it. Later he went back to class but was told to report back to the nurse in an hour. The School Nurse* decided X-rays should be taken. He was sent home and had X-rays taken at Hunterdon County Medical Center that night. He found out it was Water on the Knee.

DRUGS

Drugs isn't just a problem, it makes problems. Seven people were recently murdered in Detroit, Michigan. The murderers were said to be on drugs. Much government money has been used on research of drugs. And yet doctors can still not agree on one conclusion. Are all drugs dangerous? It depends how they are used, what drugs are being used, and when they are used. Some drugs have been proven dangerous. One of these is heroin. Famous people have died as well as non-famous people from LSD, or Heroin. Marijuana is a drug still being tested in the Labs. It does lead to higher drugs and can cause elusion. Only medicine drugs are sensible. Abusive drugs are not. They never will be.

THE PENTAGON PAPERS

In the world there are many parties. Communist, Democrat, and others. Documents, Reports, and Statements are made by all countries. Many of these reports are classified as "Top Secret." Recently some documents known as the "Pentagon Papers" were released to the press. These documents were printed in some newspapers even though they were classified "Top Secret." Before the series of "Top Secret" documents could be finished printing by the press, a federal judge halted the series of printings for a brief period. The "Pentagon Papers" issue then went to the Supreme Court. The decision of the Supreme Court was to let the newspapers continue publication of the documents. The decision to me is not understandable. I believe in freedom of the press. But I do not believe in the publication of stolen "Top Secret" documents.

WASHINGTON HOT - LINE

with Washington correspondent
TAMMY BLECK

Doreen Slominski and my family went to 9 states. We went to Maryland, Washington, D.C., Virginia, Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee, and home. My friend, Lorie Glader, has 6 baby puppies.

TRIP TO MAINE

Last month we presented an item about a trip to Maine, taken by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Angell. This month we have some details. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Angell went with their daughter Lynn to Maine. They went to Bar Harbor for an eight day trip. Bar Harbor is part of Acadia National Park. In Bar Harbor they lived in a motel with a heated swimming pool. They went swimming in the pool and only Lynn went swimming in the cold Maine ocean. While on their 3 day stay in Bar Harbor, they went to Campobello, Franklin Roosevelt's summer home. Although they did not go fishing, they bought some lobster on the dock. They also went on a tour boat. Before getting to Bar Harbor, on their way up, the Angells stopped at Sterbridge, Massachusetts, a colonial town which they enjoyed. On their way home, they went through the White Mountains in New Hampshire. They saw no snow. Michael King

ANNIVERSARY

The Story Book Farm Review had its 2nd anniversary on August 13. It was celebrated with a party with some of the money of a large donation by Mr. Ernie Smith. There were ice cream sundaes, potato chips, chocolate chip cookies and caramels to eat. Lemonade was the kid drink and Tom King's beer was used for the adults drink.

PERSON OF THE MONTH

Robert Bleck Sr. is this month's person-of-the-month. Mr. Bleck deserves his award for his dedication to making people happy. His years working at Lebanon Twp. School has brought much laughter to all classrooms. His work as a musician has made him sacrifice some of his free nights to the enjoyment of others. He was unable to attend our anniversary because of his music. He has missed many parties because of his love to make people happy. Robert Bleck Sr. truly deserves this award.

EUROPE

It seems that right around now everyone is taking a vacation and going on a trip. Well, Ed King recently went to Europe. His son Tom King, and Tom's wife Bridget and son Thomas Edward were in West Germany where Tom is stationed. First Mr. and Mrs. Ed King spent several days with Tom and family. Then they went to Copenhagen. At last word from them - a post card, they were headed for England. They plan to be gone for 3 months.

FLASH

Mrs. Herbert Rountree (Frances) had her 57th birthday on Aug 25. From the King's she received some binoculars and a card from Mike King.....Mr. & Mrs. Robert Bleck had an anniversary on August 25th. They have had 5 children - now all grown.

There was bowling, games of ping pong, talking and eating. Mike King, who was making the sundaes was kept quite busy. Everyone had a great time. It was a great way to celebrate our newspapers anniversary.

Life has changed because of changes in people. LIFE has changed because of changes in nature. When the United States was formed, the people of England turned through change into people of the United States. When this country was formed, so was a national bird. This bird is the Bald Eagle. It appears on many seals of great importance. "The Great Seal of the United States," "Seal of the President of the United States," and "Seal of the Vice President of the United States," are some of the seals which it appears on. But now careless hunters and farmers using DDT have almost wiped out the Bald Eagle. What will other countries think when they hear that the greatest country in the world has driven its National Bird to extinction. If we don't want this to happen, we better once think of the Bald Eagle, before we do something which may kill it.

NEW ROCHELLE

Mike, Linda, and Tommy King went on their second trip to New Rochelle on August 17. On the first day, Frances Rountree, Sue King, and the kids went to Ethel King's apartment. The kids would stay there until Saturday. When the adults left, Ethel King and Mike, Linda and Tommy went to the Thomas Paine cottage. It was very nice. The next day they went to Lake Darlington, New Jersey, with Karen, Carol, and Mary King. While there, they went swimming, went on a peddle boat, and played. They took Karen home to New Rochelle with them and the next day went to the Museum of Natural History. But they mistook the Metropolitan Museum of Art for the Museum of Natural History. After finding their mistake, Karen, Mike, Linda, Tommy, and Mrs. King went to the right museum. There they spent the rest of the day. After leaving New York City, they went to Spring Valley, New York, where they enjoyed dinner with Mary, Carol, and Will King. After dinner, Karen stayed with her parents, and the rest of the group left. The next day the Kings again went to New York City where they went to see "Disney on Parade." This was at the Madison Square Garden. It was very good. During the week the Plotnisky's gave a desert party for the kids, and the next day the kids gave a desert party for the Plotniskys. On August 21, the kids said good-bye to the Plotniskys and left for Story Book Farm. Michael King.

CALVIN IN FLORIDA

Calvin Grabau went to Florida and caught 40 fish. He played with his friend Jimmy and Allen. He went swimming in salty water. It was hot in Florida. One night his father and mother and brothers surprised him and came to Florida at midnight on Friday, August the 20. He left on Tuesday, the 24 of August. He went to Bush Gardens, Silver Springs, motels, and other places. He got home Sunday morning at 1:00 A.M. While in Florida he stayed with Mr. and Mrs. F.C. Johnson, his grandparents.

CALVIN GRABAU

NEW BIKES

Bobby and Rusty Bleck got new bikes. They were very surprised to get them. Bobby's old bike became Rusty's new bike. Bobby was so happy he said, "I didn't believe that was my bike." They got them August 21. Bob's doesn't need training wheels but Rusty's does. They like to ride them a lot. Bobby likes to use the hand brake a lot. Rusty likes his bike more than a tricycle.

LINDA'S BIRTHDAY

On August 22, Linda King had a birthday. It was an overnight party. On the first day, they played bowling, and ping pong until everybody came. After they all came Linda opened her presents. The girls names were Shiraz, Hinchshaw, Lisa Bush, Lynn Angell, Jamie Marion, Dawn Brigham, and Marina Grasso. After Linda opened her presents, everybody went swimming. When they came home, they sat down and ate a meal of spaghetti, salad, and rolls. For a cake, Linda got three play horses, a model tractor, and a cardboard barn, and a play lamb. Linda and her friends went to bed at 3:00 A.M. and woke up at 8:15 A.M. It was a very good party and everybody had a very good time. Linda especially.

BOOK REVIEW

ESCAPE TO THE HAUNTED HOUSE
REVIEWED BY H. ROUNTREE

Michael King, 12 year old editor of the Story Book Farm Review, has written a mystery story for boys and girls, titled "Escape to the Haunted House." It wouldn't be fair to measure the book against the best sellers. (We adults have surrounded our minds with such a jodgepodge of criteria that we can't even agree what's good in our own stuff.) So I have turned back the hands of my clock and tried to read the story as it might have looked at Mike's age. Now I see an exciting adventure yarn about three boys with nerve enough to sleep in a spooky abandoned old house. I can't tell you much more without giving away the secrets. But I can say that it gets pretty frightening. When you finish one chapter it leaves you anxious to get to the next one. Even the spelling is TERRIFIC. With the authors permission I'd like to read this book at the annual gathering of the small fry next Easter.

HOUSE EXCHANGE

While the Chip Angells were on the farm, The Thomas Kings were living in Chip Angells house in Bethesda Maryland, a suburb of Washington, D.C. The Kings left for Bethesda on Wednesday, August 25. After 4 hours traveling, they got to Bethesda, where they would reside. The first full day near D.C. they

WATER GAP

The T. Kings (Except Mr. King) went to the Delaware Water Gap. If I were to say who had the most fun, I would say Dunkly the dog had the most fun. They were walking along the paths when the kids wanted to go down by the stream. They went down to the stream and were walking along when Mike fell into the water and started sliding down. When that was taken care of, they walked on. On the way, Linda King got sick, so they went home.

TOMMY KING

They went to Washington, D.C. First seeing Iwo Jima at Arlington. After leaving, they went to the Washington Monument. But they couldn't find a parking space. So they went to the Jefferson Memorial first. That was beautiful. Next they hopped on a tourmobile. Then they went to the Washington Monument. They were not allowed to walk up the stairs. When they got to the top, the view was terrific. They were allowed to walk down. Next they went on to the...

Trying to get a special pass to the White House, the King's went to New Jersey Congressman Frank Thompson's office. But because there were no tickets, they did not get the special tour. They ate with Janet Bleck and the kids that night. But after a day of rain at the Smithsonian Institute, the King's went to the White House. Afterward they went to beautiful Mount Vernon and on Sunday to Gettysburg and home. (SEE TOMMY KING'S STORY "VISITORS" FOR THE COVERAGE OF THE CHIP ANGELL SIDE OF THE HOUSE EXCHANGE.

LAS VEGAS

The Richard Rountree's went on a trip to Las Vegas. On their way to Las Vegas, the travelers went to Bloomington, Minnesota "via Western Airlines." They stayed at the Dunes Hotel in Las Vegas. They said we aren't making a million, "but we are having so much fun getting rid of our money." They saw the shows too! Steve Lawrence and Edie Gorme, Elvis Presly, and Bobie Gentry. After dropping " $300.00 Monday and Tuesday," and winning " $85.00 Wednesday-Friday," they went to Miami to see some old friends and to go to the place they first met.

LIFE: TAKE IT OR LEAVE IT

Sometimes trips to anywhere can start you thinking. For instance, take a look at litterers and polluters. Then look at the ones who clean litter and pollution up. The cleaners are probably ones who enjoy life. THESE people would rather keep life than destroy it. But what about the litterers or polluters. Do they enjoy life? Do they care if life may cease because of their disconcern? God gave the people the first chance of being the ruler of all. The ones to have and use a brain. To develop land for use, yet not destroy that land. And yet, "We the People" are destroying that land. We have men with great knowledge who solve problems with their brain. But everyone has a brain. But many don't use that brain enough. And when you don't use that brain, you become careless. And this lack of carefulness has come to the point where we with the brains may soon wipe all living things out. So let us now clean up the bad we have committed. Let us not become our own murderer.

EMMETT ANGELL DIES

EMMETT DUNN ANGELL, 61, Son of the late Doctor and Mrs. Emmett Angell I, died after an illness brought on by a stroke, on September 18, 1971. A teacher for many years, and a person of great generosity makes us all sad at the news of his death. In World War II, Mr. Angell was a C.B. in the United States Navy and was under constant danger. Mr. Angell taught me how to collect stamps and to play chess. Many people profitted from his very successful life. He was a fine artist, and left many fine paintings. He leaves a wife, Jane, a son Chip, a daughter, Mary Jane, and two sisters, Caroline Bleck, and Frances Rountree.

The game, "Cops and Robbers" has been in existence for a long time. And so has the real game, Crime! In today's society, it is one of this country's No. 1 Problems. Crime has been a problem since the 17th Century when Pirates started to haunt the seven seas. And in the 19th Century when outlaws robbed banks and stagecoaches in the mid-west of the U.S.A. Then in the early part of the 20th Century with the early robberies and murders by Bonnie and Clyde and other gangsters. And today, in the middle of the 20th Century, men and women still rob, kill, and vandalize the world we live in. With continuance of crime, this country cannot long endure. Crime is made, "of the people...by the people" and only the people can stop it.

THE AMCHITKA BOMB: WAS IT WORTH THE RISK?

The United States recently made a bomb test at Amchitka Island in Alaska. The bomb was a very dangerous one. In order to keep a strong defense, we must not stop testing bombs. In my feelings, this country's actions to test that Amchitka bomb was worth the small risk. Without a proper defense, this country can not be respected as a strong, responsible country. The bomb which was set off at Amchitka was necessary to maintain the United States's defense, despite the small ecological dangers. The reason I believe this is because a minor ecological danger is not as serious as the chance of our defense getting behind, which some day might change the life and beliefs of this country.

CHRISTMAS QUALITY: WATCH FOR DANGER

Christmas is a religious holiday. And on that holiday, it is traditional for people to give gifts to people they know and like. But some of the products you may buy as a gift could jip you as far as quality is concerned. But also, the product may be dangerous. And danger is danger and danger means trouble. So I urge you, for your own good, to watch for a lack of quality and safety in the products you buy this Christmas.

COOLEY TRIP

The Roger Cooleys went to Ada, Ohio, in September to visit Mr. Cooleys 104 year old grandmother. She was 104 Sept. 28th. While in Ada, the Cooley family and Mr. Cooleys Brother Dexter went to a movie. But when the family didn't like the movie, they started up the car and found they had run out of gas. So Dexter and Roger walked a mile to the nearest gas station. Also on the trip Mr. Cooley played tennis with Dexter and won 8-6. Mr. and Mrs. Cooley did play bowling also. Mr. Cooley won with a 163. Also on the trip they saw Mr. and Mrs. Cooleys old college, Wooster College.

Robert Grabau got a new VW in September. It is bigger than the other bug he had. He got it because the other car broke down when he was coming home from work. He called Mrs. Grabau when the kids were asleep. She came into their room and woke them up. She told them that their bug broke down. They got their father and left their bug there and came home and went to sleep.
