It's been 9 months since Aislinn's brain surgery. She has made much improvement but still has some obstacles to conquer. We greatly appreciate everyone's support. All is looking swell.

TIDBITS

Sorry to be late, but we're finally in go mode.
Tim Bleck's card with their very bumpy ride at first of 2011, says it all. One little hiccup after another, although theirs was bigger!

THANK YOU for great photo's, Jay & Linda grouped together so beautifully, and to the Grabau family for the great extra's you will find.

TIDBITS

A Big Thank You to Doreen Bleck for sending addresses for her two "Younguns" , along with the following blurbs.

Jaimie completed her first teaching semester as DR. BLECK at Notre Dame University.
( as Doreen wrote this note a few weeks ago, Jaimie and Drissa were in Mali, W. Africa, doing field research before her second semester.)

Idrissa became a U.S. Citizen as of July 1, 2011.
Congratulations to both of them.

Tommy aka Zander just finished a successful tour, opening for David Cook (American Idol Winner). Dad, Tom, subbed as tour manager.

His song "Bring it on" (recorded with Matt Longe) is now the Intro for Fox College Basketball Games this season.

His single is to be released early this year on Interscope Records.

Young Rusty Bleck is now helping Zander out with tour management organization. work.

Wishing all good tours and good luck.

TIDBITS

Easter Day it had threatened to rain, but held off.
So the Well Attended egg hunt was a Good un!
Food, Chat groups and games, all GOOD.
John and Catherine McCabe again hosting foodfest at their house which is greatly appreciated. Lots of Angells, Blecks, McCabes, and Rountrees, along with friends and in laws.

FIRST IN THE POND..... 9 Yr. old Sam,
(Samantha Bleck, Andy & Kim's daughter.)

Aislin Bleck (Tim & Gina's daughter), got out of rehab in time to make the trip up for Easter, And she played some really MEAN Ping Pong games with various folks.

AUGUST 6, there was a PIG ROAST EVENT at the farm,
A culmination of a week long campout, down by the pond, by several youngsters. Tammy, Tim and Jennifer chaperoned.
Four good sized tents were pitched, and various kids came, some stayed one night and some hardy souls stayed all week.
Lots of activities planned, Ryan's Home Movies, Jaimie plotting a scavenger hunt, even a minor league Baseball Game in the plans.
While Tammy enjoyed all, she could not wait to get a long,
HOT shower. Sorry, Tammy, could not resist spreading that news).

The Pig Roast itself, had family scurrying in from all over *
Mass. Angells, Contingent from Ky, troops from Maryland
(two sets, one from E. Md. and one set from W. Md.)
Mary Jane flew in from Calif., Calvin G. up from Florida, or was it just over from a N.Y. stay, whichever. just lots of folks eating up and enjoying themselves.
Tom and Sue up from N. Carolina, of course, to help Linda, Jay and various farm folks make a good day for all.
Thanks, everyone.

TIDBITS

Thanksgiving Day, the King Foodfest was well attended. And with family surprise members traveling up. Delighted to see Russ Bleck and kids,. Rusty, Chelsey, and Tanner there from Lexington, Ky. (Lorri, wife & Mom staying in Ky. to hold down the fort.) Hi, Lorri!

Of course, N. Carolina (Mom and Dad) were there, Maryland had several up (Rick, Carolyn, Matt, Megan, Ricky and Teddy, Hoboken letting Margi slip out, and the Jersey locals, Bob & Zoe, Troy & Jesse, Carrie & Marco, and Marion, of course, not letting a chance for Major food consumption get by.

Thanks to all who contributed food dishes and to the Kings for ~~a good day~~<sup>cops.</sup>

A GOOD DAY.

Christmas was calm, families doing their home celebrating with immediate family, extended family and friends.

A, so far,, reasonably weather free and warm winter. Our biggy was the Halloween Storm. That was a doozy, Rather not have a repeat visit from that one!!!!!!!

Wishing everyone a good year. Take Care.

As always, a Huge Thank You to Linda King and hubby, Jay Januzzi for ther invaluable help. And Thanks to those who sent news spots to share with everyone.

Sorry to be so late in thanking you again for your efforts. We spent 5 weeks in Florida in our RV to avoid our cold weather (40 degrees!) here in NC. Then we played "groupies" to follow Citizens Band Radio from Black Mountain, NC to Memphis, to Austin TX. We were very comfortable in our RV - while I'm not so sure about CBR with 9 in their bus! We had a great time with some very great people out there. Thought you might be interested in Linda's report to her aunt and uncle. SXSW (South by Southwest) is a huge music venue in Austin where thousands of execs in the music industry meet to look for what is going to be the next big move in music. Thousands of bands come from all over hoping to be discovered. They play on every street corner, in every empty lot and in every pub and club hoping to be "discovered". Then - many thousands of music lovers flock to hear all of the bands. What a trip!!

Tom and I are flying to Chicago on Tuesday for a 3 day visit. He was born there, but we have never toured the city. I asked Tim for some recommendations for places to see - - and if we try them all, we are going to be VERY busy! It is supposed to rain - so we are going to take our Maid of the Mist (Niagra Falls) plastic wraps to keep us dry.

Golf and pottery still keep me busy here - and I just planted my small gardens. Peas, carrots, beets, lettuce - are peeking through - and pepper plants, sweet potatoes, tomatoes and beans are planted. Flowers are beautiful. Love this time of year. Still long for Linda's great garden.

Lots of love to you - and thanks again for keeping us up to date on the family!!

Florida News from Barbara family

Dear Marion,

Thank you for your Christmas card. Our apologies for not getting to you sooner. We are still attempting to send out (now New Year) greeting cards!

I have enclosed a few pictures in an attempt to show some of our happenings: Kalynn's wedding, Mylin's graduation, etc.

Things are challenging here. Bobby's progress is very slow, and Calvin and Rick have entered the "family challenge" as well, although they are still functioning quite well and under care at the Mayo clinic. We do, however, have a lot to be thankful for. Originally, we were told they wouldn't live through adolescence! Happily, the disease appears to skip 10+ years with each new generation, and my boys are all in their late 40's (Calvin just turned 50!).

Marley (Bobby's daughter) is now almost 12, and we can hardly believe it! She is in the advanced classes in her (new) Middle School and likes it very much. She has a not so new any more rescued dog, which she adores. Our nearby women's prison trains some of the dogs from the humane society (each dog assigned to a woman in the program) and upon the dog's "graduation" they are available for adoption. We were blessed to get a formerly abused rat terrier (2-3 years?) who is now very loving and obedient.

MARLEY- Bobby G's daughter.

Another granddaughter, Marley's sister Luci, taken a while ago. They live in south FL.

Wishing you joy in the New Year!

P.S.

I just thought about some more happenings:

Calvin's family at one of two South African orphanages he is President of (his radio station supports). One is for abandoned HIV babies and the other (shown) abandoned HIV children. (Check his web site for more information - thepromisehouse.org)

Bethany went over and stayed for a month as a volunteer. She loved it, but was too homesick to stay. The little black boys were so fascinated with Luca and his blonde hair. They kept brushing his head with their hands. Matt accompanied Calvin when they took Bethany (or picked her up??). It's not his thing. Calvin and Anna (Any) love it there.

Another update:

I finally located Granny in the 1930 census records.

Two items of note, the first that line 9 begins with Emmett D Angell, listed as having been a veteran of "WW" (World War), and the second item of note being that although Granny's father lists Germany as place of birth (we all knew that), but her mother lists Austria-Bohemia as her place of birth. I thought that was very interesting and kind of cool :-)

Attached is the 1930 census, two pages with one being the left side of the census page and one being the right side of the census page. Much smaller file size, and a bit easier to read.

But I am also on line 29 with the rest of the family!

I have lots of info on Gramp and his service in the war - but it is all in Linda's basement. We shall be going up there next month and I will try to dig it out. These things sure do raise more questions than answers. Don't we all wish we asked more questions?!

Lots of fun stuff ☺

I'll try to find the date of death as well. Those aren't in the census records so they're harder to find. Aunt Sue, I think you're on the last line because you must have just been born. The census began April 1st of 1940 so it may have been just after May when they reached the farm. Mom is listed as "4" with Aunt Bedford listed as "2". We figured Mom must have just turned four on May 1st of 1940. Does that sound right?

I'll send any more information if I find it. I'm trying to find where they were living during the 1920 census (Oregon?). If he was in WW1, then he may have been returned to California and they may have lived in Oregon during his enlistment, but that's just a guess. The war was 1914-November 1918 so that "could" be. The men started coming home in mid-1919.

MOST interesting!!! I was of the opinion that Gramp never lived on the farm. But since Granny never divorced him - who knows how they played it. I also think that he didn't practice medicine from the farm.

I do remember Granny telling me that her mother and father did not speak the same language when they met - so I knew they were from different countries.

Ricky, Margi and I are looking for Gramps date of death. We tried to find his obit when at Christmas, and were not able to. Any chance that you can do better??

Any idea of why I am listed on the last line of the 1940 census you sen??

Thanks for keeping us posted!

Here is more info on Fred:

Fred's Story

Friederich Carl Theodore (Fred) was born 19 Oct 1835 in Mecklenburg, Germany. He married Rosa Musiel and together they had 11 children. Five of those children died in childhood. Fred was a farmer when he first came to Wisconsin in 1854 in the Town of Gibson. After farming for 35 years, he sold his farm and moved to Mishicot where he engaged in the hotel business. In the 1870s, he moved again and went into business with his brothers Carl and Edward operating a planing mill. In 1874, he returned to Mishicot and there engaged in the mercantile business. He was retired for ten years before his death in 1908.

Fred's wife Rosa, was born in Bohemia. She died at the home of her daughter Rose Angell in Milwaukee in 1918.

Oh, that. That is the line used for "additional information" which the census taker would gather. They "pre-determined" the line numbers and then whoever was listed on the census would be also listed on the bottom with additional information. Too bad you were only 1 year as you didn't have much "additional information" at the time :-)

Just for fun, I am including a photo of Granny's father, Fred Zander. Not sure when the photo was taken, but they are all the heirs of Johann and Maria Zander who founded Zander village, an unincorporated village in the town of Gibson, Manitowoc County, Wisconsin. Also, following that is Granny's brother Otto.
