THE RE-BUILDING OF THE SHACK

THE SHACK WAS FIRST BUILT BY ROBERT AND ALLEN ANGELL. NOW, IN THE YEAR OF 1969 IT IS BEING RE-BUILT BY ROBERT BLECK. THE SHACK IS A SMALL BUILDING, UP IN THE WOODS ON THE BLECK SIDE OF STORYBOOK FARM. IT IS STILL FILLED WITH GLASSES AND FURNITURE FIRST USED WHEN THE SHACK WAS ONLY NEW. IT HAS NOT BEEN PERMANENTLY USED FOR A LONG TIME.

THAT IS WHY IT IS CALLED THE SHACK. ROBERT BLECK IS A CUSTODIAN FOR LEBANON TWP. SCHOOL. AS A HOBBY HE LIKES TO DO STONE WORK. NOW, HALF THE SHACK IS BEING OUTLINED WITH STONE. WHEN THE SHACK FIRST BUILT, IT WAS ONLY WOOD. THE SHACK HAS ONLY FOUR ROOMS. FOR YEARS THE SHACK HAS BEEN A FAVORITE PLAYING PLACE FOR CHILDREN. THE BLECK FAMILY SAYS "ONCE THE SHACK IS FINISHED THEY WILL RENT IT." CAROLINE BLECK SAYS "IT'S ONLY FOR THE MONEY."

THE TRIP TO THE NATION'S CAPITAL, WASHINGTON, D.C.
*****

FIRST OF ALL WE PRETEND THAT MICHAEL KING TOOK A DIARY. HERE IS HOW HE TOOK IT FOR THE WEEKEND OF NOVEMBER 1, 1969.

OCTOBER 31, 1969:

TODAY AFTER SCHOOL WE WENT HOME AND WASHED UP. THEN WE GOT IN THE CAR TO GO TO BALTIMORE, MARYLAND. WE FINALLY GOT TO BALTIMORE AT 7:00 P.M. WE STOPPED FOR DINER AND THEN WENT TO THE MOTEL.

NOVEMBER 1, 1969:

TODAY AT ABOUT 7:30 A.M. SOMEONE KNOCKED ON THE DOOR OF THE KING'S ROOM
THE DOOR WAS THEN OPENED AND IN WALKED CALVIN GRABAU AND LYNN ANGELL.
FOLLOWING CAME F.ROUNTREE AND R.GRAU FOLLOWED BY HIS WIFE CAROLINE. THEY TALKED FOR A WHILE AND THEN LEFT. LATER THAT DAY WE WENT TO A DINER DOWN
THE STREET. I WILL NOT MENTION HOW THE FOOD TASTED OR HOW THE SERVICE WAS.
WHEN WE LEFT THE DINER WE WENT BACK TO THE MOTEL THEN ON TO THE WEDDING.
FOLLOWING THREE HYMNS, THE BRIDE AND THE GROOM CAME OUT. THEN THEY WERE PRONOUNCED HUSBAND AND WIFE. FOLLOWING THE WEDDING PICTURES WERE TAKEN
FOR AT LEAST 15 MINUTES. WHEN "THE ROUNTREE'S" CAME OUT THE RICE WAS THROWN AND THE BEST OF THE DAY WAS SPENT AT "MRS. ROUNTREE'S" APART-MENT, WHILE THE ADULTS WENT TO THE RECEPTION.

NOVEMBER 2, 1969:

THE KING FAMILY, MARGI ROUNTREE, AND SUE APLEGATE WENT TO WASHINGTON, D.C. TODAY FROM THE CHIP ANGELL HOUSE. WE WENT AROUND IN A 1916 DODGE.
IT WAS FUN TO SEE EVERYONE'S FACE TURN FROM A FROWN TO A SMILE. WE WENT ALL AROUND THE CAPITAL BUILDING ESCORTED BY TIM BLFCK. WE WENT IN THE LINCOLN MEMORIAL, PAST THE WHITE HOUSE, PAST THE JEFFERSON
MEMORIAL (IT WAS CLOSED TO THE PUBLIC), AND PAST THE WASHINGTON MON-UMENT. SOME OF US WENT TO ARLINGTON CEMETERY. WE HAD OUR LUNCH AND HEADED FOR NEW JERSEY.

Dear Mr. Editor:

Could you please enclose in your edition of the Story Book Farm Review a complete scaled map of Story Book Farm, so that we on the west coast will understand a little better what you the editor are explaining in the Review, also because we are not at all familiar with the layout of the farm. Thank you.

Also I would like to let you know that Mr. and Mrs. E. L. King have purchased a 1970 Datsun housecar and are now touring the beautiful resorts of sunny California on 3 and 4 day weekends.

Hope to hear from you soon.

Thomas M. King

Tom;

We have enclosed in all the July Issues of the Story Book Farm Review a map of Story Book Farm. We have done our best to make it. Thank you for the bit of information on the 1970 Datsun and the touring of sunny California.

TIM BLECK DIES

This is the story of the most shocking event in Story Book Farm Review.

Tim Bleck, a reporter for the St. Louis Post Dispatch died at the Suburban Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland on November 14, 1970.

Tim was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bleck Sr., died of what was thought to be viral hepatitis. It was not. It was from a T.B. vaccination. Instead of getting a good vaccination, he got a drug which later proved fatal. It also took the life of another reporter in Washington, D.C.

Richard Dugman the chief Washington correspondent for the Post Dispatch, said "Tim Bleck's death is a loss to journalism."

TIM BLECK

Tim was the winner of the awards. Con Lee Kelliher award. He also won the Most Promising young reporter of the year award. But Tim was not just a great writer he was a great man as well. Tim Bleck left a path for the Story Book Farm Review to follow. Tim Bleck showed us that we could not have a good newspaper without putting something into it.
